

Brian R. St. Germain

ST. GERMAIN, CORPORAL BRIAN R., 22, of Harris Ave., died Sunday as a result of injuries received in vehicle accident in the Al-Anbar Province, ASR Uranim, Iraq, during Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Born in Warwick, a son of Robert and Lynn (Adamo) St. Germain of West Warwick, he had been a resident of West Warwick for most of his life.

Brian was an honor student and Allstate athlete in track and field in the hurdles for West Warwick High School, graduating in 2001. He had worked for Jerry's Supermarket in West Warwick. Shortly after High School, Brian joined the Marine Corps and graduated from Parris Island in 2002. He was stationed at Camp Pendleton in CA, and was currently serving his second tour of duty in Iraq. He was a racing fanatic and loved anything and everything to do with cars and trucks.

Besides his parents, he leaves his brother Nicholas J. St. Germain of West Warwick. He is also survived by his paternal grandmother Louise St. Germain. He was the grandson of the late Francis St. Germain and Anthony and Marie Adamo.

His funeral will be held Wednesday at 8:15 a.m. from the Robert A. Iannotti Funeral Home, 415 Washington St., Coventry with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 in Holy Apostles Church, 800 Pippin Orchard Rd., Cranston. Burial with Military honors will be in the Rhode Island Veterans Memorial Cemetery, Exeter. Visiting hours will be held Tuesday 3-8 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorials to the WWWAA, P.O. Box 301, West Warwick, RI 02893 or the Toys for Tots Program US Marine Corps, 1 Narragansett St., Providence, RI 02905 will be appreciated.
